Cost: $20

Dates: Wednesday 11 August 2010

Time: 9.00am - 3.00pm

A light lunch is provided. Enrolment is important for catering purposes. Payment can be made on the day.

The aim of the day is for you to be part of a REAP community learning event, gain some new ideas and meet some new people.

Speakers for the Day:

Clair Higginson - Sustainability

Sustainable Living means... using less stuff by making sensible shopping choices, thinking about the ability of our great grandchildren to be able to meet their needs, maintaining a balance between our natural systems, our economic system and our social system and becoming more resilient and responsive. But what does it really mean? Should we be doing things differently? This session will provide an overview of sustainable living, working through to actions we can take at home and identifying areas for future learnings.

Melissa White - Cherry Blossom Cakes

Melissa grew up in Hawkes Bay and studied at Victoria University before embarking on a career in Human Resources. After working in London for five years specialising in Graduate Recruitment for the Investment Banking industry she returned to New Zealand to follow her passion establishing her company Cherry Blossom Cakes (www.cherryblossomcakes.co.nz). Melissa will tell her story of setting up a business and even let us have some hands on practice at cake decorating!

Kyle Mewburn - Children's Author

"I've always loved writing. Whenever my teachers asked me to write a story, I'd write and write until my pen ran out of ink. Unfortunately my handwriting has always been horrendous. No matter how hard I try it always looks like a cockroach has stepped in some ink and crawled across the page...When I'm not writing I'm either in my garden singing to my veggies, in the creek swimming or exploring the strange land I discovered at the back of my wardrobe. (OK, that last bit may not be completely true...)" Kyle Mewburn, recent winner of the Book of the Year with his book 'Old Huhu' will come and share his stories with us. (www.kylemewburn.com)

* Paper plus will have a stand of Kyle's books at the REAP Day for you to browse and purchase if you wish.

Aimee Sherriff - Interior Designer

One of Bannockburn's most important and prominent historic buildings is now back in business. Aimee Sherriff has established an interior design and decorating business in The Bannockburn Store, built in 1881. The House of Aimee Design opened in April and Aimee will share her story of establishing a new business and give us some tips of how to brighten up various rooms in your home.
