

Thyme Festival Sustainable Alley Sunday 20 November from 10 am

Company/Organisation Name & Address:
Contact Person:
Telephone:
Email:
Website:

Participants/stallholders: please complete the following to show the sustainability aspects of your products and services

(Note: not all 6 criteria below are relevant to every product/service, just complete what is relevant to your business and if you require assistance please contact sustainability@coreap.org.nz)

Note: the six sustainability criteria are used with the permission of Otago Polytechnic Centre for Sustainable Practice

SUMMARY of sustainable practice achievements	(Include here any certification/accreditation)
Creating no waste	 cyclic	Actions taken to avoid creating waste and reducing the volumes of waste produced: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •

Using clean energy	 solar	Actions taken to reduce fuel consumption and dependence on non-renewable sources: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •
Harmless to nature	 safe	Actions taken to avoid use of chemicals which can harm nature, and that enhance ecosystems and protect biodiversity: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •
Meeting people's needs	 social	Actions taken to benefit your staff, community, customers and stakeholders: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •
Running with less	 efficient	Actions taken to ensure efficient use of resources: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •
Long term profitability	 resilient	Actions above that have led directly to cost savings: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •

Cost of stall space will be $10 for demonstrate and display and $20 where items are for sale on the day.

Please return to Clair Higginson, email sustainability@coreap.org.nz, post 17A Brandon Street Alexandra, ph 03 4486115